LITTLE GIRL SHOT.

Boy of 10 Fires as She Crosses Amesbury Yard.

Amesbury, Mass., July 7.—Helen Coffin, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coffin, was struck by a 22-calibre while crossing the yard of Orrin Lucy's home on Elm street yesterday afternoon. Earl Lucy, 10 years old, who fired the shot, was arrested.

The boy had been discharging this rifle during the afternoon and the police investigation apparently showed that when the girl passed through the yard the lad stepped from a doorway and fired at her. The child fell and Earl threw the rifle aside and ran from the vicinity.

The bullet entered the back of the girl's neck at the right of the spinal column and passed out through her mouth. The wound inflicted is severe and it is feared injury to the liver and lungs will cause her death.

Unless complications develop she is expected to recover.

The boy was placed in charge of the probation officer.

AUTO DASH TO DEATH.

Woman Is Killed in Wild Run at Wilkes-Barre.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 7.—One woman dead, another perhaps fatally injured and two other persons slightly hurt is the result of a wild dash of an automobile down Wilkes-Barre mountain yesterday.

The dead woman was Mrs. James Hughes of this city. Miss Laura Cannon, a member of the Luzerne county bar, was probably fatally injured.

James Hughes, husband of the dead woman and president of the Wilkes-Barre automobile club, and the chauffeur were slightly hurt.

The machinery of the vehicle became disabled as the automobile was descending a steep grade. Losing control of the machine, the driver was unable to stop his wild flight and it dashed down the mountain until it struck a sharp curve and plunged into a high embankment. All the occupants of the machine were thrown out.
